

Solomon Financial Advisors welcomes Travis B. Woods

Solomon Financial Advisors proudly announces the addition of Travis B. Woods as a new Financial Advisor with our company.

Travis graduated from Mississippi State University in 2008 with a BBA degree in risk management, insurance, and financial planning. While attending MSU, Travis was President of Kappa Sigma fraternity, where he was recognized as one of the top ten Outstanding Presidents in the country from within 260 chapters. He was an Alumni Delegate and an active member in Reformed University Fellowship campus ministries. He worked in a summer internship program with Solomon Financial Advisors in 2009. Travis then obtained his MBA from Mississippi State University in August 2010. He served on the Tennessee Valley Authority Investment Committee, helping manage a portfolio of assets for TVA. He holds a Series 7, Series 66 licenses, as well as his life / health /accident licenses. Travis will immediately begin his studies to become a CFP. Travis and his family are lifetime members of First Baptist Church of Jackson. His personal interests include hunting, fishing, and triathlons.

"I am thrilled to have a person of Travis' integrity join our firm. His character and highest regard for our clients best interest will help serve our clients well", says Scot Thigpen, President of Solomon Financial Advisors. "Travis is a true leader with an incredible work ethic, and has everything it takes to be a valued and trusted financial advisor for his clients. He is a very welcomed addition to our company."
